HORSIN' AROUND

2016 Malibu Creek Ride

Superbowl Sunday was on Feb 7th and weather reports predicted high winds for the day, but that did not stop twenty riders from gathering at Paramount Ranch for ETI Corral's annual Malibu Ride. There was ample parking for trailers and everyone was soon tacked up and ready to ride.

Trail Boss Paul Jacques led the ride and Kathleen Ungamrung rode drag as they headed off through Paramount Ranch, crossing Mulholland Drive to Reagan Ranch. Worries about high winds disappeared as the light breeze kept a warm day more comfortable.

The trail forked to the right and down through a dense forest into a valley littered with huge boulders and large trees that the horses carefully picked their way through until they got to a clearing where the TV series, MASH was filmed. Everyone had fun taking pictures in front of the famous MASH sign while hikers admired the horses.

The riders then headed towards Malibu State Park, following a well-groomed trail with beautiful views of the surrounding cliffs and reservoir, then down to the main park area to a water crossing to allow the horses to drink. The equines certainly enjoyed splashing in the cool water and drank their fill before heading over a large hill and proceeding to the lunch area.

Riders spread out along the edge of a large meadow with tall grass for their mounts and lots of logs for seats. Everyone enjoyed the break and the chance to get to know their fellow travelers as the horses rested or grazed.

The return trip looped back through Malibu Park then turned up a narrow trail over a mountain, winding its way through thick woods, down to Reagan Ranch, and back to Paramount Ranch. Just before reaching the trailers, Paul took the riders through the Western set where many TV series, movies and commercials have been made, and everyone had fun riding through the streets and posing for pictures taken by tourists visiting the site. Great fun was had by all on a beautiful day-and the ride was even finished in time for the Superbowl.

10th Anniversary Cheri Blue Ride 2016

On February 28 Corral 22 celebrated the 10th anniversary Cheri Blue Ride. This ride is dedicated to the spirit of a very unique friend, mentor and teacher who always knew the right thing to say and never missed an adventure

Given a perfect day 17 riders set off for a three and a half hour ride up to Cherry Canyon County Park. Riders enjoyed gentle hills, cool shade and creek bottoms on the Flint Canyon Trail. At Cherry Canyon the ride traversed the Liz's Loop taking in the vistas there then on to stop at the Ultimate Destination to enjoy cool water provided by the Legendary Liz Blackwelder and take in the views of the Crescenta, San Fernando and San Gabriel Valleys.

Upon returning to Rose Bowl Riders Club house everyone enjoyed a delicious brunch and good company.

The fun wouldn't be complete without a 50/50 drawing that was won by Pamela Patterson!

A special thanks to Ivy Murillo, Bill and Tina Pollard for setting the tables and to Leah for providing flowers and treats for the horses.

Thanks to Mary Timmer and Scout for being trail boss and Kat Ungamrung and Bailey for riding drag.
